CLEANED OUT!

Yep, we cleaned out our stockroom, and found millions more of these full-color portraits of Alfred E. Neuman, MAD's "What-Me Worry?" kid. They're swell for framing, wrapping fish or lining the bottoms of bird cages. They're not so swell for selling, as we've found out. So, c'mon. Help us to clean them out for good by sending 35¢ for one, 75¢ for 3, $1.85 for 9, $3.15 for 27 or $6.35 for 81. Mail money to: MAD, 485 MADison Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. 10022

COMPUTER DISPUTER COVER

I enjoyed your front cover on #198. It's about time somebody cut down those disgusting UPC symbols, the blemishers of every product you see!

Anthony Milanese
Gibbstown, N.J.

I love the way you guys get back at people who force things like the "Universal Products Code" upon you. Just the thought of defacing your great cover with this symbol makes me UPChuck.

Alan Daughton
Syracuse, N.Y.

Everybody with eyes hates that UPC symbol. Since I collect magazine cover art from way back, I find it particularly distressing. It reduces everything to super-market level.

Ken Anger
New York, N.Y.

Did you ever stop to think that maybe your yecchy cover will be defacing the UPC symbol from now on?

William Rooney
Notre Dame, Ind.

"THE DIP"

"The Dip" made me drown in a sea of laughter.

Eve Deem
Daytona Beach, Fla.

Hart and Drucker really went off "The Deep" end. "Is anything worth the terror of their 'Dip'?"

Paul Smith
Sarnia, Ont.,
Canada

Liked your "seaquel"! Mark O'Neill
Crestwood, N.Y.

ADVANCEMENT OF HUMOR

I'm very pleased with your advancement in humor. I appreciate what you're doing to make the world a little happier.

Roxy Corlino
Westfield, N.J.

WHEN THE "UPC" SYMBOL TAKES OVER

I truly pine for the old-time "Mom & Pop" grocery stores whenever that malevolent UPC symbol reminds me that "Big Brother is watching!" the store.

Fran Bojar
Kearny, N.J.

Regarding Henry Clark's "When The 'UPC' Symbol Takes Over Completely", the man's an innovative genius.

Barbara J. Keiler
Chico, Calif.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES CATALOGUE

"School Supplies Catalogue" was very educational. You did, however, neglect to mention that the "Arctic Knight" gym showers, which filter out all hot and lukewarm water, channel that water directly to the drinking fountains.

Mary Moad
Oklahoma City,
Oklahoma

Congrats to Tom Koch and Bob Clarke on "School Supplies". After great effort, I managed to acquire a copy of the Cincinnati School Board Supply Listings. An exact duplicate! However, you did forget unlightable Bunsen burners.

Greg Gast
Cincinnati, Ohio

Koch and Clarke forgot those metal-tipped, top-heavy, thoroughly unwieldy window poles that often bring down a shower of glass on some poor, straining Window Monitor.

Karen Carbone
Whitman, Mass.

It looks like my school bought all of the items!

Jim McDermott
Wantagh, N.Y.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE SYSTEM

"You Can't Beat The System" really hit home with me. I moved to Chicago six months ago and have been turned down repeatedly when I apply for credit cards to local stores. The reason: I don't have a sufficient credit record in Chicago, but obviously can't build a credit rating until I obtain some credit cards!

Judy Spira
Chicago, Ill.

AROUND NOON ON A MOVIE SET

Don Martin's "Around Noon On A Movie Set" was very hard to swallow!

Rick Dunlap
Park Forest, Ill.

Was the actress in Don Martin's "Around Noon On A Movie Set" an apertizer?

Lane Timmons
Baldwin Park, Calif.

MAD ONE-TIME-USE-PRODUCTS

What a match-up in Porges and Jaffee. A writer-artist collaborating with an artist's artist-writer's writer. Not to be a "One-Time-Use"!

Hames Ware
Pine Bluff, Ark.

"One-Time-Use Products" was the limit!

Laurence Abraham
Teaneck, N.J.

I think your "MAD One-Time-Use Products" article should also be put on the list of "One-Time-Use-Products".

Gwen Urdang
Providence, R.I.

LEGENDARY WIRE HANGERS

I was really hung up on "Some Legendary Wire Hangers".

Jill Southers
Encino, Calif.

BUS STATION CRIME

Don Martin's "One Evening In A Bus Station" was a real rip-off!

Greg Lamson
Agawam, Mass.

Rip Off?

TEN LITTLE BUSINESSMEN

Frank Jacobs' "Ten Little Businessmen" was regrettably realistic. May I add:

*All the "Little Businessmen"
Who tried so hard to win,
Now stand in long employment lines
At Shell and IBM!*

Andy Siedlecki
Dartmouth College
Hanover, N.H.

I never thought I'd write a serious letter to MAD but I read "Ten Little Businessmen" and I wanted to cry. It's an accurate picture of my beloved South Bronx, which I fled! All the grimy goings-on that culminated in it becoming a wasteland, where once there were dreams and hope.

Dorothy Parker
Levittown, Pa.

*The "Ten Little Businessmen"
Was really quite profound;
City fathers, please take heed,
Or else we're ghetto bound!*

John Rios
Los Angeles, Calif.

A WHALE OF A FOLD-IN

Happy to see Al Jaffee accentuated the fact that Japan and Russia were neck-to-neck in the race for depleting the number of whales, to the shame of the humane world. Maybe a subsequent Fold-In could show the recent winner of that race, Japan. Thanks to the slaughter of one thousand dolphins, close relatives of the whale, by Japanese fishermen, their country has finished first on both accounts!

Mary-beth Gadzik
New Britain, Conn.

We who love and respect whales are very grateful.

Chas Stevenson
Connecticut Cetacean Society
Avon, Connecticut

You mean the staff meteorologist, in predicting the weather?

No, the staff cook, in feeding the troops tacos and beans!

These planes were made by General Motors back in 1943! It's fantastic!

Yeah . . . that G.M. waited 35 years to finally recall them!

This old Mexican said he saw the sun come up in the middle of the night!

COUNTERS OF THE ABSURD KIND

ARTIST: MORT DRUCKER

WRITER: STAN HART

There's a lot we don't know about going on out in space! I tell you ... there's LIFE out there!

Maybe! There sure ain't none in HERE!

Hey! The lights are going out!

That means I get to go to work!

Not tonight, Honey! I have a headache!

I mean to work at my job at the power plant!

Hello, Dispatch! I—I can't understand it! This truck is shaking like crazy!

It's probably bad shock absorbers!

That could be! Except for one thing! I've been parked for the past ten minutes!

What in heck?!

That's either a UFO ... or some wild High School kids on a date!

And—gulp—I'm not sure which is more frightening!

Look at that speed! The cops will never catch them! Now I'm sure what that is—High School kids on a date!

No, it must be creatures from outer space!

How can you be sure??

They weren't throwing beer cans out the windows!

Wasn't it exciting last night, Cloy ... ?!

I mean when the power failure came, and we couldn't see each other, and you came into my bed, and we made love so savagely—so passionately—so fiercely! Wasn't it—you know—romantic?!

Gee ... why not?

Because I was out on the job at the time!

It sure was!

Maybe for you, but not for me!

What was REALLY exciting was ... I made contact with a UFO last night!

I mean it! It came so close to me, it's glow burned half my face!

Out to find it again, so I can get the other half burned! Then, our neighbors will think we've been to Miami Beach on a vacation!

Aw, c'mon, willya!

Where're you going?

Why are we in India? What are all these people doing?

They heard some strange musical tones . . . coming from ze air!

But why did they come to this spot?! There's no shelter from the scorching sun . . . nothing to drink . . . no toilet facilities . . . and they can't possibly see where the music is coming from!

They thought eet was a Rock Concert!

I've got it! Look! If we convert those tones they heard in India into numbers and letters, we get "G-47" . . . "N-33" . . . "O-72" and "B-12"!!

Ah-hah! Zat is eet! Zat is eet! Mon dieu, we haf intercepted an inter-galactic "Bingo" game!

No, I think they're global coordinates! Someone . . . or some thing from outer space is trying to arrange a meeting with us somewhere!

Beep!
Boop!
Bing!
Bong!

What are you doing, Barium?

I'm calling all my friends on the space ship out there . . .

Dopey kid! You'll outgrow all your silly fantasies by the time you're sixteen—which—unfortunately, is next year!

See? I told you, Mommy!

I wish I could call a cab that easily!

That blinding light! We'll be safe if I close all the windows and doors and block out that blinding light!

There! I've blocked out all the light!

You'll be all right now, Barium!

Barium? Barium?! Don't be frightened! You can talk now!

Not . . . quite! You're standing on my throat!

Goodbye, Mommy! I'm going away . . .

No! NO!! I won't let them take you! I won't!

Why not . . . ?

You haven't cleaned your room yet!!

I've heard of child care centers . . . but never one that picks up!

There are no such things as UFO's!

How can you say there are no UFO's! I've seen them myself!

And one took my child!

Let me assure you, Madam . . . the Government would never lie to the American public!

Really?! How about Vietnam and Watergate?

Boy, we've got lousy luck! A UFO flew off with Jelly's kid!!

She loses a kid, and WE have lousy luck?! Why??

Because they didn't take any of OURS!

That mound-shape fascinates me . . . almost hypnotizes me! It must mean something!

Maybe we're being invaded by alien mashed potatoes!

That mound-shape of margarine is trying to tell me something!

Butter!

That's not what I meant!

That mound-shape again! I must try to stop thinking about it . . .

... especially when I'm driving!!

He hit me first!

I hate him! He started it!

Men on first and third—two out, top of the sixth!

I told my buddies they could come over, and they're coming over!!

Over my dead body!

There's got to be more to life than THIS!!

But we're living the American Dream! We have a house . . . a huge mortgage . . . two and a half kids—

Yes! A boy, a girl . . . and I'm not sure about Bruce! We're a typical American suburban family! What could be better than this?

Two and a half kids!

In a word—ANYTHING!

You expect me to live in a house with all that mud and schmutz? I'm leaving!

When will you be coming back?

I'm not coming back! I'm getting a divorce!

But why?!

I TOLD you we were the typical suburban American family!

That's it! That's the mound I've been seeing!

What's going on out there...?

I don't believe it!

I'm going to Wyoming to see for myself!

Boy! Talk about your friendly TV Newscaster!

Glad you asked! The U.S. Army is evacuating the area because of poison gas!

Neither do I, but I only read the news, kiddo!

Bon voyage and dress warm!

Yes! This mound is in Wyoming!

What are you doing here in Wyoming?

I'm looking for Barium! I thought I'd start with the last state in the alphabet and work backwards!

Ever see that shaped mound before?

All the time... when I'm changing my kid's diapers!

There seems to be a LOT of that in this movie!

Let's take off these gas masks and make a break for it! The army is lying about that poison gas!

I knew the truth the minute I made that model of "The Devil's Tower" from all that garbage and mud and manure!

If you don't mind, I'll leave the gas mask ON when we make our break! You should've showered before you left home!

They're getting away! We have to stop them! Okay—who wants to go? It's a swell climb up a lovely mountain! It's wonderful exercise, with plenty of fresh air, and a berry patch at the top! Uh... anyone care to join me?

Boy, when they made it an all-volunteer army, they really made it an all-volunteer army!!

They're spraying sleeping gas, but we're in luck! It's drifting away from us!

I think some of the gas drifted into the audience!

No... THEY fell asleep waiting for the dazzling SPECIAL EFFECTS we publicized!

See?! I TOLD you there was something going on up here!!

We climb this whole damn mountain just so you could take me to a NIGHT GAME?!!

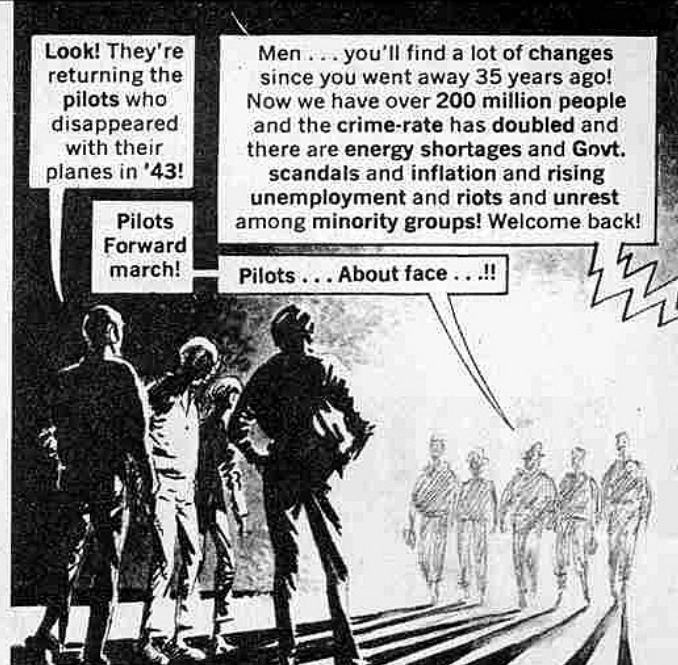

Beep!
Boop!
Boop!
Beep!
Bing!
Bong!
Bong!
Bing!

Their ship is communicating with us by using musical tones, and our computer is answering back!

Who designed our computer?
Leonard Bernstein!

Oh-oh! The ship and the computer are going a little crazy!

Just what we needed! A Science-Fiction "Dueling Banjos" scene!

Look! They're returning the pilots who disappeared with their planes in '43!

Pilots Forward march!

Men ... you'll find a lot of changes since you went away 35 years ago! Now we have over 200 million people and the crime-rate has doubled and there are energy shortages and Govt. scandals and inflation and rising unemployment and riots and unrest among minority groups! Welcome back!

Pilots ... About face ... !!

Look at those children from space! Why are they running off the ship??

Can you imagine what it was like?!? A ten thousand light year trip ... and not even one rest room stop!!

Good-bye, Jelly! I must go back with them! The trip will give me a mystical and religious experience!

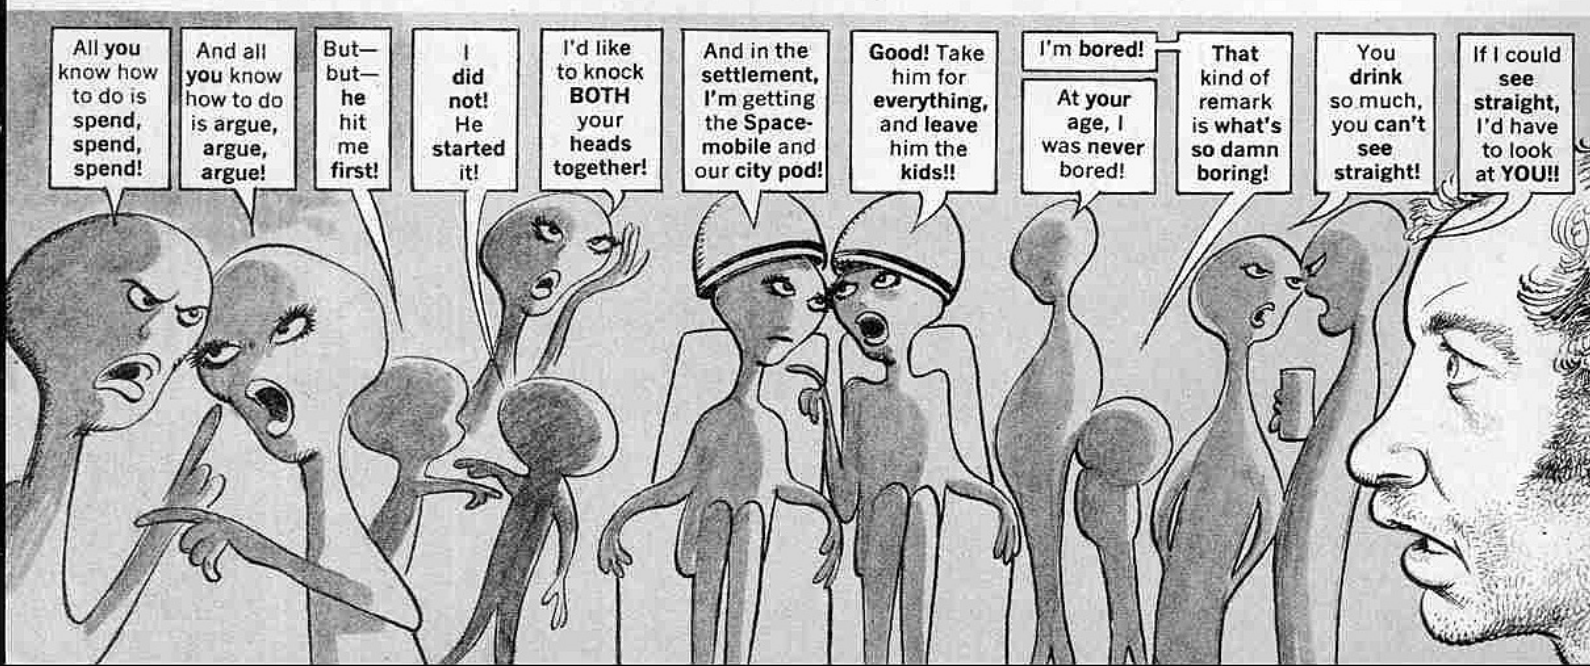

But you're leaving your wife and kids behind! Don't THEY give you anything?

Yeah ... a pain in the ass!

Don't you understand? People believe in other worlds because they know there's something better somewhere, some higher form of civilization, where the human spirit can soar, free and untrammelled and where life has real meaning! That's what I expect to find aboard this ship!

You wanna bet ... ?

All you know how to do is spend, spend, spend!

And all you know how to do is argue, argue, argue!

But-but-he hit me first!

I did not! He started it!

I'd like to knock BOTH your heads together!

And in the settlement, I'm getting the Space-mobile and our city pod!

Good! Take him for everything, and leave him the kids!!

I'm bored!
At your age, I was never bored!

That kind of remark is what's so damn boring!

You drink so much, you can't see straight!

If I could see straight, I'd have to look at YOU!!

THE RIME OF THE MODERN SKATEBOARDER

(With apologies to Samuel Taylor Coleridge's "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner")

Written by Tom Koch Illustrated by Don Martin

He was a wild-eyed skateboard freak;
He stoppeth one of three.

"I've slalomed all through hell," he said.
"That's where I skinned my knee."

He freestyled up the wall and back;
Then, crouching on his board,

He launched into his ghastly tale,
While those around him snored.

"It started at a Skatepark near
My California home.
'Twas there I met two kindred souls,
Big Stan and Small Jerome.

"The three of us all shared the dream
Of learning far-out tricks
Like tail-taps and three-sixty turns
To help us score with chicks.

"Six days a week we practiced on
The Skatepark's asphalt deck.
(The seventh day, I washed my hair
And cashed my welfare check.)

"In time, we three had learned to do
The One-Wheel Pirouette;
And then we stopped to marvel that
No girls had noticed yet.

"Said Stan, 'I fear these hot-dog tricks
Will never land a dame.
So why not try for second best:
The Skateboard Hall of Fame?'"

"The Hall of Fame!?? We'd seen its plaques,
And knew its honored types
Were those who'd dared to skate inside
Of giant, hollow pipes."

"Two stories high, those lengths of pipe
Loom o'er the desert floor,
Abandoned there by thirst-crazed men
Who'd passed that way before."

"To reach them, you must slog through sand
A hundred miles from town.
Still worse, when skating in a pipe,
You're often upside down."

"This prospect panicked Small Jerome,
Who asked, 'Why must we dare
To skate someplace we might get killed?'
Quoth Stan: 'Because it's there!'"

"Such logic could not be denied.
It drove us forth to meet
The destiny that lurked there in
The hellish desert heat."

"To make our trip a sure success,
We packed our kits with care.
I brought the jelly sandwiches,
The plates and silverware."

"Stan brought some skateboard urethane
In case the wheels got hot.
Jerome said he'd bring water bags,
But somehow, he forgot."

"And so, our throats became more parched
With every passing day.
Worse yet, we found no pipes to skate.
We'd clearly lost our way."

"As time slipped by, our hopes grew dim
Of ever being found.
Then, suddenly, a gopher popped
Its head above the ground."

"A good luck omen!" cried Big Stan,
And Small Jerome agreed:
'A gopher-powered skateboard is
The very thing we need.'"

"A tiny treadmill soon was built
Where gopher paws could run.
We nailed it to our strongest board;
Then climbed on, one by one."

OSCAR

"Big Stan yelled, 'Mush!' The gopher strained.
I felt the skateboard start!
And as it moved, a giant weight
Was lifted from my heart.

"We all felt cheered, and foolishly
We laughed and joked and talked;
For we had yet to learn how slow
A weary gopher walked.

"His treadmill pace was soon a stroll;
Our motion all but ceased.
Half crazed, I screamed, 'You goldbrick, you!'
And then I killed the beast.

" 'You fink! You've killed our good luck charm!'
I heard Big Stan emote,
While Small Jerome the gopher tied Around my pulsing throat.

"My former friends then left me there.
Stan put their reason well:
'In summer weather such as this,
Dead gophers tend to smell.'

"Left with the skateboard all alone,
Time weighed upon my hands.
It's hard to practice wheelies 'mid
The shifting, whisp'ring sands.

"In that unceasing desert heat,
My mind began to fail.
One time, I even thought I saw
The gopher wag its tail.

"Thus, I assumed my eyes played tricks
When on the seventh day,
A grizzled skateboard spook appeared,
And slalomed straight my way.

"I sensed he was no earthly thing,
For though his speed was great,
I saw his board had rusty wheels
From some old roller skate.

"His eyes were wild; his socks were torn;
His beard was long and fine.
Said he, 'That gopher 'round your neck
Was once a friend of mine.'

" 'You killed my pal!' he shrieked at me.
'For that, you'll dearly pay.
My ghostly curse will follow you
Until it's Judgement Day.'

"He vanished, and I glumly thought
That things could not be worse.
Forever seemed like quite a while
To stay beneath a curse.

"I can't recall how long I'd walked
In mindless exercise
When far away, I thought I saw
A town of goodly size.

"It's only a mirage, I guessed.
No town could really be
In such a God forsaken spot.
Still, why not check and see?

"To my surprise, the town was real.
I whooped with sheer delight
To see old broads in tennis shoes
Stand bathed in neon light.

"'I'm saved!' I screamed at one old dame.
'This place is Xanadu!'
Said she: 'Las Vegas is its name,
I'll bet you five-to-two.'

"The gopher I soon flung aside
To toast my change of fate.
Its body struck a roulette wheel,
And stopped on number eight.

"'You win!' I heard a voice call out.
'That's quite a clever play.'
And then I saw the man in charge
Push piles of chips my way.

"I won a million bucks that night,
And made a gambler's vow
To have the custom skateboard built
That stands before you now.

"Its wheels are made of diamond dust
Mixed in with urethane.
The trucks are cast of solid gold.
The kicktail's teakwood grain."

The skateboard freak then paused amid
The tale he'd come to tell;
And as he hugged his costly board,
One teardrop on it fell.

Spake he at last: "I still have times
When sorrow seizes me.
A guy gets glum to know he's cursed
For all eternity.

"For though I've lived through my ordeal,
And ditched the gopher, too,
And have the finest skateboard known,
One thing still makes me blue.

"I'm doomed through life to tell my tale,
So ghostly and unreal.
If you've been bored to hear it once,
Just think how I must feel."

THAT OLD FAMILIAR STRAIN DEPT.

Pick up any popular magazine, and you're sure to find an article proclaiming, "Stress is the Number One health problem in the nation today! It can kill you!" Naturally, reading this statement causes you to suffer a lot more stress. But reading the rest of the article can push your blood pressure even higher, because the author invariably claims to have found some miraculous new thought process or life style that will enable you to escape from all of the pressures of daily existence. Who do these writers think they're kidding? They must take us for a bunch of idiots! Because, as anyone knows who lives in the real world of unending frustration and annoyance and fear . . .

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . having Tony Orlando and Dawn finally off weekly television offers absolutely no assurance that they won't soon be back.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . even after you've studied hard and memorized the answer to every possible exam question, you still have to worry that you may get sick and throw up before you can write enough stuff down to avoid flunking.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . Selective Service still keeps a file on every man who ever registered so they can all be drafted in case of a national emergency, but Lord only knows what the Pentagon considers a national emergency.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . you're constantly reminded that Steve Cauthen is more successful at the age of 17 than you'll probably be in your entire life.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . Carmelite nuns, Utah State football players, left-handed Volvo salesmen and Irish contraltos are all members of minority groups, and there's no telling which will become the next to turn militant.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . the world is made up of only two kinds of people: those who ride motorcycles, and those who have to listen to the people riding them.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . that brainy kid who won your sixth grade spelling bee is still out there, somewhere in this world . . . just waiting for another chance to make you look bad.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . ridding our society of all the substances that have been found to cause cancer in rats may just mean we'll soon be confronted by billions of robust, healthy rats.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . we'll have at least five more Presidential elections in which Teddy Kennedy will still be young enough to run, and by then we'll have to start worrying about David Eisenhower.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . buying a clock radio just means that you'll be jolted awake every morning by a grating disc jockey instead of a clanging bell or an irritating buzz.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . there's a chance that this will be the day when Ralph Nader denounces the cereal you always eat for breakfast as being "... a dangerous potential killer."

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . members of other racial groups may interpret the way you behave in their presence as being too hostile . . . or too patronizing . . . and either way, you're in big trouble.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . seeing how even Anita Bryant can become controversial makes you worry about your publicly expressed opinions of Ron Howard, Donny and Marie, Tom Seaver and Winnie the Pooh.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . commercial aviation is becoming safer at just about the same rate that your chances of getting to the airport alive are becoming almost negligible.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . every time you follow a highway flagman's signal, you know that you're putting your life in the hands of some high school drop-out who makes $3.16 an hour.

YOU CAN NEVER ESCAPE FROM STRESS BECAUSE . . .

. . . you strongly suspect that Idi Amin's broad smile, lavish promises and professed love of the common people could get him elected President here, too, if he ever decides to run.

Did you know that "jeans" ... which were originally made to be worn by workmen, farmers and laborers, and are now the "IN" thing to wear in this country ... are also the rage in Europe?!!

In fact, when I was in Moscow on this trip, a Russian guy offered me a lot of money for my jeans!

Did you sell them to him?

I never got a chance! A couple of Communist Policemen showed up suddenly and arrested him!

Whatever for ... ?!?

For wanting to look like a CAPITALIST!!

You've got to see what I bought today, Daddy! It cost a fortune, but it was worth it! These peasant boots alone cost seventy-five dollars!!

And this peasant blouse was sixty-five dollars! And this peasant skirt was eighty!!

There! Isn't this chic?! Isn't this luxurious?! Tell the truth! How do I look?

Like the daughter of a VERY RICH PEASANT!

Why are you back from the beach so early?!?

I was thrown off it... banished... told never to return again!

My goodness! What kind of a beach was it?

A NUDE beach!

Oh, my God!! You brought shame to the whole family! What kind a freaky, disgusting, kinky perverted thing did you do?!?

I refused to take my clothes off!

Hey, Man... you've got your very own pinball machine in your very own room! That's cool, Man... real cool!

Yeah... a lot of people own them these days!

Do you play often?

Every day!

So how are you scoring?

Not so good! One day, I WIN... one day, I LOSE!!

So play every OTHER day!

What a cute little girl!

I'm NOT a girl, you creep!!

OOOFF!!

Boys and girls are wearing the same long hair styles these days! How am I supposed to know which is what?!!

I've got the same problem ... but I've learned how to tell the difference!

The BOYS punch you in the stomach ... and the GIRLS scratch!

You've tried all the fad diets, right? Macrobiotics? Low carbohydrates? Liquid protein? High protein? You've tried them all, eh?

Yeah ...

You've starved yourself? You were miserable? And whatever weight you lost, you gained back, right?

Yeah ...

Well, cheer up! Here's a brand new fad diet! The guy who invented it says you can eat all you want!

YEAH!?

Of everything you don't like!

Like this example most Graduating Class pictures are usually unexciting groupings of the subjects, lacking in creativity and void of inspiration. Which got us at MAD to thinking that it really doesn't have to be that way. Like f'rinstance, why not hire talented people to stage interesting interpretations of these usually deadly groupings? Hi! I'm Chivy Chaste and you're not! I'll bet you're wondering what a superstar like me is doing here! Well, after my last TV comedy special . . . and it may very well be my last —ha-ha . . . N.B.C. felt that maybe my talent lies in a different direction, like doing interviews! Who knows? If I do good on this assignment for MAD, I might become the male Barbara Walters . . . or, as I used to refer to her on Saturday Night . . . Babwa Wawa! But seriously, folks, I'm here to interview Mr. Cool Carnal, who has been designated as . . .

MAD'S COLLEGE CONCERT COMIC OF THE YEAR

Cool, why have you become the "Big Comic on Campus?" Do you have something special the kids relate to?

Nahh! Nothing like that, Man! I need the bread!

Actually, I had better vibes with their parents!

See, I was a standup comic! "Carl Carnal . . . the Clown Prince of Comedy"—that was me! I was doing real groovy material . . . like my great Lawrence Welk classic . . .

Mr. Welk, do you think violence should be banned on TV?

Uv course not! Violence are d' most important instruments in my orchestra!! A-vun anda two anda t'ree . . .

Hahah! Violence! Violins! Oh, Cool, you really kill me!

ARTIST: GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

WRITER: LOU SILVERSTONE

Man . . . and then, it HAPPENED!

People got tired of "Lawrence Welk" jokes . . . ?

No, the clubs started to fold! And then Ed Sullivan went to that Big Variety Show in the Sky! Man, there was no place for a class act like mine! It was either the colleges—or back to selling storm windows!

EXIT

Man, my first college gig was an education! I made an amazing discovery . . . !

College kids LIKE "Lawrence Welk" jokes?

No . . . I found out that with a college audience, I didn't NEED jokes! They were so stoned, they laughed at anything I said!

You can skip that ... please!

Do you use any current material?

Only if something really mind-blowing ... like Anita Bryant comes along!

Man, do you know that Anita Bryant drinks her orange juice STRAIGHT?

STRAIGHT! Ha-ha! Get it?

Did you hear that Anita Bryant is giving up doing those orange juice commercials because some dude told her that oranges are FRUITS?!

... are FRUITS! Cool, you kill me!

Since the college kids are anti-Anita, does that mean they're pro-gay rights?!

Man, they don't dig them fags any more than me! But Anita's shtick represents their parents' point of view, so it's cool to put Anita down! Even if you secretly agree with her!

Isn't that kind of a phony attitude?

Why do you think I'm such a HIT?

Tell me, where do you get your material?

I go to my old neighborhood and listen to the punks talk! These college dudes think that jive is cool! Anytime I wanna get a laugh, all I hafta say is, "smack" or "pot" or "maryjane" or "horse"!

Right on! The kids today are programmed to laugh at anything they think their parents don't understand!

Do you use writers?

Only those cats who write things on Men's Room walls! Sometimes I switch an old joke ... like ...

Y'know why it takes five Poles t'roll a joint?

One guy to lie down and hold the fixin's, and four guys to push him up the hill!

That's funny?!

Trouble with you liberal, intellectuals is, you don't understand ethnic humor!

Cool, baby, you're gonna kill 'em tonight! Just inhale that air!!

What's the AIR got to do with it?!

Grass, Man! Smell that grass! That means they're higher than I am! It's my kind of audience! Stoned!

Ladies and Gentlemen ... Mr. COOL CARNAL!

Hey! Man! Thanks for that groovy intro! Gi' me five!

Hayyyyy! Did y'ever pick your nose ... and then shake hands with somebody?!

RIGHT ON! BRAVO!! YAYY!

I don't believe it! He's getting a standing ovation for picking his nose! My mother used to ground me for that!

My Old Man used to tell me that everybody who smoked grass would end up as a junkie!!

If he was right... then we got some pretty big cats who are junkies!

Like, when they elect a new Pope, what do you think that little white puff of smoke is?!!

Fantastic! He just put down parents and the Church in the same bit!

He'd better not use that gag when he plays a Jesuit School!

I'll tell you one thing, Man! When you turn on with pot, you get a clean high! You don't barf all over your Pumas!

G-A-A-C-C-C-K!
Ever see a Martini drinker when he's high?

G-A-A-C-C-C-K!

Hah! I'm getting sick to my stomach from laughing!

I'm feeling a little ill, too... but it's not from laughing!!

Sir, as a member of the Faculty, what do you think of the students' taste in comedy...?

You call this "comedy"?!! I never thought I'd get nostalgic for the good old days of campus riots! But after seeing our kids break up over this schmuck, I'd welcome a real old-fashioned campus protest!

Yeah! Like an "Anti-College Concert Comic" protest!

I notice you're not laughing very much!

That's because I'm not tripping! Man, I'll never come to one of these again unless I'm bombed out of my skull!

I'd like to leave you with one word! B-U-R-R-R-P! That feels good! I'll say it again! B-U-R-R-R-P!

Oh, God, he's a riot! So how come when I do that, you say I'm DISGUSTING?!

Well... thanks a lot for the interview, Mr. Carnal!

Hey, Man, don't split now! It's only the intermission! I'm just starting to roll!

Sorry, but I've got to see my agent about getting me these college bookings!

If they can laugh at the crap YOU do, they'll get hysterical over MY stuff... like when I spill water on my pants...

... or when I fall down... or my "Jerry Ford Bumping His Head" bit!

This is Chivy Chaste, turning you back to MAD Maga... OOOPS!!

YOU BET YOUR LIFE DEPT.

Gambling is stupid! "No," you say? You wanna bet?! Okay, go ahead and gamble... but know the odds. Because knowing the odds is necessary if you're gonna gamble

IT WAS EAGERLY AWAITED BY THE PUBLISHER BECAUSE SOSNICK TOOK THE $2500 ADVANCE AND PARTIED IN MEXICO FOR SIX MONTHS!

THE NEGOTIATIONS ARE VERY HEATED. MR. SOSNICK WANTS THEM TO BUY IT AND THE STUDIO DOESN'T!

ESQUIRE ONCE PRINTED HIS "LETTER TO THE EDITOR" COMPLAINING THAT THERE WEREN'T ENOUGH DIRTY PICTURES IN THE MAGAZINE!

SHE HAS TO WORK AS A WAITRESS BECAUSE MR. SOSNICK IS UNEMPLOYABLE!

Here's what the Critics have to say about Norman Sosnick's masterful new novel...

"...I couldn't put it down..."
Cleveland Plain Dealer

"...a novel that really makes you feel..."
Saturday Review of Books

"...has hypnotic power..."
Kirkus Service

"THIS EVENING AT TWILIGHT" is destined to become one of the great mysteries of modern literature.

The eagerly awaited first novel has caught the public by storm. Over 100,000 copies are now in print, and Mr. Sosnick is currently negotiating with a major film studio for the motion picture rights.

Mr. Sosnick's writings have appeared in such prestigious publications as "The Atlantic Monthly" and "Esquire", and he has been a frequent contributor to "The New York Times".

Mr. Sosnick lives in Greenwich, Connecticut, with his wife, Beth, who pursues her own career, and their two children, who are in college. Mr. Sosnick is hard at work preparing to write his next novel.

HE'S TRYING TO GET HIS FAVORITE CRAYON SHARPENED!

THE BOOK MADE THE REVIEWER FEEL... "NAUSEOUS!"

WHATEVER COMPELLED THE PUBLISHER TO PUT OUT SUCH A PIECE OF CRAP IS A MYSTERY!

100,000 COPIES WERE PRINTED, AND 99,992 ARE STILL SITTING ON BOOK STORE SHELVES!

HE ONCE HAD A "WANT AD" PRINTED IN THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, TRYING TO SELL HIS TWO-SPEED BIKE!

HE CONTRIBUTES $2.00 TO THE NEW YORK TIMES "SEND A KID TO CAMP" FUND EACH YEAR!

THE KIDS ARE IN COLLEGE BUT THEY HAVEN'T TOLD SOSNICK WHICH ONE BECAUSE THEY DON'T WANT ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE OLD BORE!

THIS MEANS YOU MUST KEEP THE RECEIPT FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE! ALSO, IF YOUR PARENTS BOUGHT THE SKATEBOARD FOR YOU, IT IS ACTUALLY THEIR SKATEBOARD, NOT YOURS. AND THE COMPANY CAN NOT TAKE ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR SKATEBOARDS LOANED TO OTHER PEOPLE!

THE SKATEBOARD CAN ONLY BE CLASSIFIED AS NOT FUNCTIONING IF 3 OR MORE WHEELS FAIL TO ROTATE, OR 3 OR MORE WHEELS HAVE FALLEN OFF ENTIRELY!

IT WILL COST YOU FOUR BUCKS TO MAIL THE THING BACK TO THE MANUFACTURER!

GONIFF SKATEBOARD LIFETIME WARRANTY

This Warranty is in effect as long as you own your Goniff Skateboard.

It covers any defective parts, or any parts that may become defective from normal wear and tear.

If the skateboard fails to function, return it along with this Warranty to: The Goniff Skateboard Company

Rte. 6 South, Secaucus, New Jersey.

(Allow five weeks for servicing)

YOU MAY THINK THAT IF A SKATEBOARD BREAKS WHEN YOU STAND ON IT, IT IS DEFECTIVE, BUT THE MANUFACTURER WILL NOT! AND WHO KNOWS SKATEBOARDS BETTER THAN THE PEOPLE WHO MAKE THEM.

NORMAL WEAR AND TEAR MEANS RIDING ON IT ONLY IN A STRAIGHT LINE ON SOFT CARPETING, KEEPING IT AT ROOM TEMPERATURE AND LUBRICATING IT TWICE DAILY WITH IMPORTED TIBETAN YAK OIL!

ONCE YOU SEND THEM THE WARRANTY, YOU NO LONGER HAVE IT... DO YOU?

DORA SHICKSA

One of the most popular gals among the faculty at Finster High is Dora Shicksa. Nicknamed "Bunny" because of the cute way her nose moves whenever she laughs, Dora has beaux aplenty, including star quarterback Rick Brock.

Some of Dora's extra-curricular activities include the Drama Club, where she won attention for her memorable performance in "Oklahoma," and the Camera Club, where her pictures have won her an enthusiastic following. Writing is Dora's hobby, and she's real good at it, too.

When she graduates, she wants to go to U.C.L.A., where she plans to study Anatomy.

Dora's favorite motto is, "In God We Trust."

Dear Sir:

Today, it costs a great deal of money to run a school!

To put it frankly, we need money... a lot of money!

Think for a second! What if--God forbid--someone in your family, some loved one, should suddenly need a Podiatrist in the middle of the night, and there is no one to call--It could happen...

because there simply are not enough Podiatrists to go around, leaving many people without their services.

The San Fernando School of Podiatry trains young people and helps them get their degrees so they can go out into their communities.

So when you contribute, don't think that you're just helping a school! You may be helping yourself!

Wow! Look at those clods!

No... I mean look at those CLOUDS! It's...

You mean look at those clouds...!!

THE DUMMY & MAREEK SHOW

ARTIST: ANGELO TORRES

WRITER: DICK DE BARTOLO

This is our op'ning; It's a beaut! We're—oh, so darling; Oh, so cute!

So if your screen gets blurry,

You needn't start to worry;

It only means your set's begun to puke!

We've got such vitality,

And even more banality;

So call in Mom and Dad— It gets much rougher...

And let's have the entire family suffer!

Hi! I'm Dummy—

And I'm Mareek!

So much for the comedy portion of our show! Let's get serious and talk about our guest stars!

Wait a minute, Dummy! Just wait... a... min—it! Just one... min—it—toe...!!

Mareek... I said we were FINISHED with our uproarious opening! Stop doing our "A" material!

That's their "A" material all right! It's Awful!!

Well we're back, folks! And this is the spot in the show where I sometimes make Mareek laugh!

And other times, I make Dummy laugh!

Just ONCE, I wish they'd make US laugh!

I guess my taste is just a little bit hicks-ville!

But we've learned it's the perfect kind of blend-ex;

'Cause ratings, folks, are where it's at ...

These songs will always make you a little bit SICKS-VILLE!

And my taste runs a bit toward city slicks-ville!

For scoring high with Nielsen and with Trendex;

And it really doesn't matter that ...

As you can tell from that lyric, this is the portion of the show where each week, I sing the country songs and Duinmy sings the big city songs!

Well ... since we've been doing this same old routine for years and years, we went to the Producers of the show and we were really mean and nasty to them!

We said things like "Gosh!" and "Pretty please!" And we even went as far as "Shucks, Mr. Producer, can't we do something DIFFERENT after all these years?" And by golly, we got our way!!

That's right! so, next week, I sing the country songs, and Mareek sings the big city songs!

NEXT ON YOUR SCREEN:
Another Comedy Sketch!
(This will be your only warning!)

Ladies and gentlemen ... the Captain has just informed me that we are about to have a collision with an airplane!

With an airplane? At SEA LEVEL?!!

Talk about SURF'S UP!!

I'd rather die right now! So—serve me some shipboard food!

Isn't this exactly like the other unfunny comedy sketch?!!

Only the unfunny jokes are the same! It's a totally different set!

I'm sure, at this point, you're probably saying to each other, "Gosh, but Dummy and Mareek have been so wonderful, with their skating and their singing and their jokes and their acting and their playing musical instruments . . . but now, how about a little ENTERTAINMENT?!" Well, Dummy and Mareek Osmundane are not going to monopolize the entire hour! No sir! And so, ladies and gentlemen, welcome JAKE Osmundane . . .

. . . And pay attention to the subtle production we give Jake's number . . . to take your attention away from his voice!!

My love for you is really groovie; More fun than a disaster movie . . .

When I'm near you, I begin to shake; It's just like I'm a living "Earthquake"!

For your sweet lips, I'll always yearn so; You're hotter than a "Towering Inferno"!

You're the one I can confide in; You flip me like that ship "Poseidon"!

Your touch flies me higher—higher than Heaven; Like "Airport Seventy . . . Five, Six or Seven"!

But the worst disaster would obviously be—If you pulled a "Barry Lyndon" and disappeared from me!

Have you noticed that the studio audience applauds with their hands over their heads?

On this show, the ONLY thing that's ever over the audience's heads is their hands!

COMING YOUR WAY . . . THE "FINALE"
(Now, do you believe in miracles?)

As you know, on every show, we have a huge "theme" finale! In the past, we've had as our themes such dynamic subjects as Movies, Broadway, Circus, and like that! And then there were weeks when we had to resort to lesser "themes" like Air and Lint! Well . . . tonight's wild, wacky, way out "theme" is "TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION"!

Close your eyes and
you will love it;
You may rise up
well above it!

Try the world's best medication . . .
"TRANSCENDENTAL
MEDITATION"!

You'll free your mind;
You'll free your spirit;
For "Hare Krishna" . . .
Come on, let's hear it!

Keep your Paris;
Keep your Rome;
Be it ever so humble,
There's no place like OM!

Oh, give me an OM
That my Guru can moan—

All the folks
at GM
Are busy doing TM!
Gm women . . .
Gm men . . .
Looking for WHY,
WHERE and ZEN!

Close your eyes and
you will love it!
You can rise up
well above it!
Move from simple meditation
Right to advanced levitation!

You'll escape
Earth's
gravitation!
Transcendental
Med—i—tation!

That certainly was a really
"uplifting" finale, wasn't it, Mareek?

Yes! And now we've come to the end of another one of our six hour specials!

Gee, Mareek, our show is only an hour!!

Yes, but it seems like
six to our viewers!!

May your tomorrow
be a better day!
And it will with us
out of your way!

May the good Lord keep you
safe from strife and pain;
And for penance next week
make you watch us again!

Well, that's it . . . except for our big closing boffo
one-liner . . .

You delivered it
last week, Dummy!
Let me deliver
it this week . . .

Okay, Sure,
Mareek! Go!!

Good night,
everybody!!

THE PRODUCERS WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL
THE PEOPLE WHO MAKE
THIS SHOW THE HIT IT
IS! NO, NOT THE PRO-FESSIONALS WHO WORK
ON THE SHOW . . . BUT THE IDIOTS WHO GIVE US THE LAUGHTER . . .
THE SHILLS WHO GIVE US THOSE TONS OF
EXTRA APPLAUSE . . .
AND THE SUB-NORMALS
OUT THERE WHO WATCH
US AND GIVE US THOSE FANTASTIC RATINGS!!

HERE WE GO WITH ANOTHER RIDICULOUS MAD FOLD-IN

It's always a mystery why human beings are constantly developing new formulas guaranteed to cause future disasters. To find out what one such formula is, fold in the page as shown at the right.
